Required Policy Statements

- This syllabus is intended as a guide for this course. Dates, assignments, and evaluation are subject to revision by the instructor. Any such revisions will be announced in advance.
- Copyright. This syllabus and all related course material are protected under US Copyright Law and may not be further disseminated in any form or format without the prior explicit written consent of the faculty member. Failure to comply with this provision may subject the student to disciplinary action and/or state or federal action.
- Student Professional Behavior in an Academic Program. Ethical and professional behaviors are considered a core competency in an academic program and, thus are key factors in good academic standing. Upon acceptance of an offer of admission, the student commits to comply with all professional conduct regulations established by the University, respective college, and program. The complete University policy is at www.ouhsc.edu/provost/documents/FacultyHandbookOUHSC.pdf
- Academic Misconduct Code. The code describes academic misconduct as acts intended to improperly affect the evaluation of a student's academic performance or achievement and includes but is not limited to acts such as cheating, plagiarism, fabrication, fraud, destruction, bribery or intimidation, assisting others in any act proscribed by this Code, or attempting to engage in such acts. The policy and procedures related to academic misconduct are detailed in the Academic Misconduct Code found in Appendix C of the Faculty Handbook at www.ouhsc.edu/provost/documents/FacultyHandbookOUHSC.pdf.
- Academic Appeals. This policy outlines the procedure to request a hearing for appeals related to evaluation in a course, thesis or dissertation defense, general or comprehensive exam. It also outlines the appeal process for a suspension or dismissal or under the Student Professional Behavior in an Academic Program Policy, and the appeal of decisions resulting in dismissal, expulsion, or suspension from a program. The sole basis for an academic appeal is an alleged prejudiced or capricious evaluation or decision. Policy and procedure details are in Appendix C of the Faculty Handbook at www.ouhsc.edu/provost/documents/FacultyHandbookOUHSC.pdf.
- Accommodation on the Basis of Disability. The University of Oklahoma is committed to the goal of achieving equal educational opportunity and full participation for students with disabilities. Accommodations on the basis of disability are available by contacting the Disability Resource Center (DRC) by email at drc@ou.edu. or by calling (405) 325-3852 or Voice or (405) 325-4173/TDD. Information on policies and registration with the Disability Resource Center may be found on the DRC website at: www.ou.edu/drc. Students requesting accommodations related to work in a course must contact the DRC as soon as possible; accommodations are not made retroactively.
- Sexual Misconduct. For concerns regarding gender-based discrimination, sexual harassment, sexual misconduct, stalking, or intimate partner violence, the University offers a variety of resources, including Advocates-On-Call 24/7, counseling services, mutual "No Contact orders," scheduling adjustments, and disciplinary sanctions against the perpetrator. Please contact the Sexual Misconduct Office at (405) 325-2215 (8AM-5PM) or the Sexual Assault Response Team at (405) 6050013 (24/7).
- Adjustment for Pregnancy/Childbirth Related Issues. Students needing modifications or adjustments to course requirements because of documented pregnancy-related or childbirth-related issues should contact the college's Assistant/Associate Dean for Student Affairs (or academic advisor) as soon as possible to discuss. Generally, modifications will be made where medically necessary and similar in scope to accommodations based on temporary disability. See www.ou.edu/eoo/faqs/pregnancy-faqs.html for commonly asked questions.

- Course Drop/University Withdrawal. The student is responsible to submit required University paperwork before the deadlines shown in the Academic Calendar online at <http://ouhsc.edu/admissions>. Missed homework and examination grades will be entered as a grade of zero if a student fails to formally drop the course or withdraw from the University.
- Encryption. Students and trainees must have laptops and external storage devices, such as flash drives and hard drives, that are used for University business, encrypted by Campus IT through a Device Security Clinic (<http://ouhsc.edu/registerdevice>) or similar, prior to using the device for University Business.* University Business does include checking HSC email. Removal of encryption by Campus IT is required upon departure from the University. *unless you have been notified by College or Department personnel that you are specifically, individually exempt.
