

FINAL EXAMINATION SCHEDULE

The following updated final examination schedule aligns with the University of Oklahoma Health Sciences policy and procedures to accommodate the scheduling of examinations during finals week, allow for a make-up day in clinicals (if needed), and ensure that students do not have multiple examinations on any given day. Per University Policy, final exams are not given early nor are there more than 2 exams on any given day per student.

The final examination date and time is announced to students in the course syllabus/agenda, which is distributed at the beginning of the semester. Please review and update your academic calendar to note the dates specified for spring 2025 final examinations. If you have any questions, please contact your instructor immediately.
